

CRIMES AND CASUALTIES.

Suicides at Pittsburgh, Chicago and Hot Springs—A Man Confesses to the Murder of His Father and Sister—Starting Social Scandal at Memphis—That Georgia Widow—Noble Conduct of a Memphis Magistrate—Case of Insanity at Chicago—Miserable and Desperate at Brooklyn—The Upper Sandusky Witness Attempts Suicide Again—Destructive Fire at Quincy—Loss $125,000—One Man Killed.

Memphis, Sept. 6.—W. H. Hand, white, fatally shot Jackson Sykes, colored, about noon yesterday. It is supposed to be the result of an accident.

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 7.—A writ of error has been issued in the case of Isaac Brandt and Joseph Hummel, the Lebanon county murderers under sentence of death.

New York, Sept. 6.—In the case of the minstrel musicians of the Hungarian Band, the court has decided to hold the manager in bail for trial on a charge of cruelty to children. The boy Shapler was held to bail as a witness.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 6.—Mrs. Jones, an old lady residing at Edmondville, shot a husband above the city, and committed suicide by taking a solution of hydrate of chloral. She lingered in great agony for several hours. Deceased leaves a large family. No cause is assigned for the deed.

West Winchester, Ont., Sept. 7.—Clark Brown, son of the man murdered here a few days ago, has confessed to Rev. Kowal, of this place, that he killed his father and sister. He says he rapped on the door, and when his father came down stairs, struck him with an ax. His sister, hearing the struggle, came down stairs and immediately recognized him, and he was then obliged to kill her to cover up his crime. Avariciousness is given as the cause.

Chicago, Sept. 6.—A young man carrying a bundle of papers went out on the government car yesterday noon, shot himself in the head, fell into the water and disappeared from view. The suicide was twenty-six years of age and the son of Hans Traub, an extensive wine dealer of Litchfield, Bavaria. He came to America in 1869, spent a year in Buffalo, and then came to Chicago. His employers speak highly of him, and the reason for his suicide is somewhat obscure.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 6.—A reporter has just returned from Eberton neighborhood, whence Mrs. Pullian, the beautiful widow, was abducted. Nothing has been heard of her since her letter dated at Pococia City, fifty miles distant, announcing the abduction. Neighbors have abandoned the search and ridicule the idea of abduction, as do also all her relatives. It is now the universal theory, founded on numerous detailed facts, that her condition was such that delicacy demanded her retreat from the public for some time; that this plan was adopted for that purpose, and that when the anticipated affair is over she will return.

Upper Sandusky, Sept. 7.—Schneider, the principal witness against McMahon, the alleged murderer, made a second attempt at suicide in his cell at the jail last night. He had torn a sheet into small pieces and tied them together. When the sheriff entered his cell this morning, Schneider was lying on the floor exhausted. One end of the rope was tied to the bed post and the other end around his neck. The bed post was not high enough to do the work the would-be suicide desired. He was nearly dead from strangulation. To-day the prosecuting attorney liberated him.

Brooklyn, Sept. 6.—Ann Sloan and her three children were found living in squalor and filth in the back yard of a house on Baltic street dispossessed a week ago for non-payment of rent. While drunk Thursday the woman struck Ann Kelly a terrible blow on the head with a shovel, and the latter was removed to the hospital. The former went to the penitentiary for six months. The children were sent to an orphanage. John Hart, aged sixty-two, with two children, homeless, were found sleeping in the street yesterday morning and nearly dead from exposure and starvation, caused by drinking. All were sent to the almshouse.

Hot Springs, Ark., Sept. 7.—To-day a young and beautiful married lady deliberately committed suicide, shooting herself with a revolver in the left breast. The young lady was well known in Arkansas, and about three weeks ago was married to Harry Farley, now an employee of the Fort Smith Railroad. For some reason or other the young couple did not get along well together, and were shortly after separated. Deceased evidently meant to make her work, as the pistol was placed right against the breast. The beautiful girl lived but a few minutes and died murmuring, "I don't care; I don't care." Deep despondency and melancholy are given as the reasons for the rash act.

Chicago, Sept. 6.—At a late hour to-night the Western Union Telegraph office at Quincy, Ill., and one or more buildings adjoining were burned. The fire originated in the livery stable of Sweet and Followsbee. The stable, together with the academy of music and the large brick block adjoining, occupied by J. W. Stewart, cinnamon merchant, and J. E. Woodruff, baking powder manufacturer; the packing house of Adams & Sawyer, and several other buildings, were destroyed. The fire then extended to the large four-story brick block on Main and Fourth streets and gutted the entire block. The board of trade, Western Union Telegraph office, Masonic Hall and many private offices were located in this block. Henry Locke was killed by falling walls. The loss is estimated at $125,000; insurance, $40,000.

Memphis, Sept. 6.—A startling social sensation is just brought to light. Information reached the chief of police notifying him that a white woman named Sue Blackburn, is living on terms of criminal intimacy with a negro man at 114 DeSoto street. He sent Capt. O'Haven to the place, and he captured her as she was about to escape from a side door. The woman is of a beautiful face and figure, about twenty years old. She confessed that the negro Lewis, then porter at a hotel in Little Rock, ruined her, and that a certain physician at Bowling Green, Ky., to which place she went, made way with the child. She seemed infatuated with Lewis, who passed for a husband, and is now down with the yellow fever, and she refuses to leave him. She claims to be well connected in Ohio and to have a rich uncle in Indiana.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Col. R. E. Johnson, of Dakota, arrived in Chicago yesterday afternoon, under charge of friends, in a state of violent insanity, superinduced by religious excitement and frenzy. Some time ago, the colonel conceived a passionate affection for a beautiful young lady, of Catholic faith, and, being himself of a different belief, strong argument and pressure to prevent a union was brought to bear. This altogether so affected his mind, that from a morbid condition, he has grown to be a raving madman, and the visit to this city was to secure proper treatment, and place him in confinement. He was taken to the Palmer House, and in the hands of four men carried shrieking to room No. 559. He has a brother, a clergyman, at Steubenville, O., upon whom he constantly calls, with appeals to the Almighty to save their souls.

New York, Sept. 7.—A Memphis special says a Magdalen named Mattie Reno died there of yellow fever last evening. While belonging to that order known as the demi monde, the acts of this woman justify the classing of her with the heroines of the present plague. Her ministering cares have been among the most lowly who had been attacked in her neighborhood. Although never having had the fever, she went around giving her attention to the sick and distressed. Unmindful of herself she seemed to care only for the afflicted. When she died, some young men who had heard of her kindly deeds, gave her a respectable burial in Elmwood. At the grave were the Rev. J. J. Kelly, of the Episcopal Church, and Rev. J. J. Kelly, of the Presbyterian Church. Dr. Datzell, in a most impressive manner, read the funeral services. The two ministers and four young men acted as pall bearers.

New York, Sept. 6.—When the watch returns were called in the Tombs police court yesterday, the officer arraigned a young and handsome dressed gentleman, whose face bore unmistakable marks of dissipation. A whooping cough, a cold, and a fever, between the officer, an elderly gentleman and the magistrate, which resulted in the discharge of the prisoner, who gave his name as Richard A. Smith, and his residence, Brooklyn. The facts in the case, as subsequently ascertained, were that the prisoner, who is said to be a millionaire, two days ago drew $1,000 from a savings bank, which he proceeded to expend in a dissipated manner. He brought up at the Vanduyke House, Borey, Thursday evening with $250 on his person and was assigned to a room. He then sent a dispatch to his wife in Brooklyn, bidding her farewell forever, and announced his intention of committing suicide. His wife, on receipt of the dispatch, went to the Vanduyke House as quickly as possible and had her husband arrested. On the table of his cell this morning, Schneider was lying on the floor exhausted. One end of the rope was tied to the bed post and the other end around his neck. The bed post was not high enough to do the work the would-be suicide desired. He was nearly dead from strangulation. To-day the prosecuting attorney liberated him.

Thousands of men and women are starving themselves to death. They dare not eat or drink this or that, fearing it will increase their flesh. Life depends upon continuous self-denial. The only safe and reliable remedy for this terrible condition is Allen's Anti-Fat. It is wholly vegetable and perfectly harmless. Its use insures a reduction of from two to five pounds per week. Sold by druggists.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 13th 1878. To the proprietors of Allen's Anti-Fat: Gentlemen—The following report is from the lady who used Allen's Anti-Fat: "I (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week, until I have lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost. Yours resp'y."

Yellow Fever Notes. An address soliciting aid for the children of the deceased Gen. Hood, has been issued by gentlemen of both political parties and soldiers who served in both armies during the rebellion.

At Memphis, Saturday, 17 new cases were reported 8 of which were colored. Total number of new cases for the week 152, of which 78 were white and 74 colored. On Sunday 11 new cases and 8 deaths were reported. Among the deaths were Margaret Hines, Daniel A. Fowles, John Kacquet, W. W. Lockard, Belle Miller, Mattie Walker, Lulu Atwood, Frank W. Dahl, Pauline Whitehead, Mamie Leocoe, W. S. Berlin, Miss Ella Houck and a number of colored persons. Sixteen nurses were assigned to duty on Saturday.

The Products of Indigestion. Indigestion is the source of all the food is productive of serious and costly mischief to the entire bodily economy. The circulation languishes and grows poor; leanness, pallor, and a loss of muscular and organic power supervene; but, worse than these, the functions associated with the dependent organs, such as the generation and the secretion of bile, grow irregular, and the organs whose business it is to discharge those functions become badly disordered. This disastrous state of things is more readily and thoroughly rectified with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, than any known medicinal agent. The system properly nourished, leanness and debility overcome, and the bowels and liver thoroughly and promptly regulated.

The remedy by medical practitioners do not hesitate to prescribe Dr. F. W. Hoff's Anti-Peptic or Fever and Ague Tonic is as follows: Messrs. J. C. Mack, Finley & Co., of New Orleans, its proprietors, have published its composition, and physicians have approved it because it contains no dangerous drug, and because it invariably proves successful. It is for sale by all druggists.

Is It Possible That a remedy made of such common, simple plants as Hops, Buchu, Mandrake, Hamamelis, etc., could be so many and so marvelous, and wonderful cures as Hop Bitters do? It must be, for when old and young, rich and poor, pastor and doctor, lawyer and editor, all testify to having been cured by them, we must believe and doubt no longer. See other column.

Whenever you see a friend suffering from Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick Headache or any kind of disease, advise him to go to the nearest drug store and procure a bottle of Other Rakoczy Bitter Water, and be at once relieved of those distressing ailments. A wineglassful a dose. For sale by all druggists.

Great Merit. All the fairs give the first premiums and special awards of great merit to Hop Bitters as the purest and best family medicine, and we most heartily approve of the awards for we know they deserve it. They are now on exhibition at the state fairs, and we advise all to test them. See another column.

OUR NEW PRESS.

Having a Capacity of 5,000 Sheets, Both Sides, Per Hour.

A Comparison Between the "Sentinel" Presses of 1833 and 1879.

With Some References to the Printing Machinery in Metropolitan Cities.

We present to-day to our readers a cut of the new double cylinder press, which has just been placed in this office. It has a capacity of 5,000 sheets, both sides, per hour, and is, we believe, the only press of the kind in use in the state, with the exception of one in the office of the Indianapolis Sentinel. The press is from the celebrated establishment of R. Hoe & Co., of New York and London, the leading press manufacturers of the world.

The improvements in printing presses are among the greatest triumphs of mechanical skill which have marked this era of wonderful inventions. The SENTINEL, when it was established in 1833, was printed on a primitive wooden press, known as the Stansbury which had a capacity of 150 sheets per hour. The next improvement was the Washington hand press upon which this paper was printed for many years.

A similar press was used in printing Dawson's Times, and presses of this construction can now be found in many country newspaper offices. The SENTINEL, about eighteen years ago, enlarged its facilities by the addition of a cylinder press, the motive power being furnished by a couple of stalwart, stout-fisted, brawny-armed "tailors." The construction of this press, ranging from 600 to 800 sheets an hour (one side), according to the wind and bottom of the gentlemen who turned the wheel. Twelve years ago the SENTINEL put in a steam engine, which has, since that time, furnished the motive power of the establishment.

For over ten years the SENTINEL has been printed on a single cylinder Taylor press, with a capacity of 1,500 sheets (one side) per hour. The circulation of the SENTINEL has now reached a point at which such a press was utterly inadequate, and, indeed, the new press will prove barely sufficient to meet the demands of our business. It is probable that, before many years, it will have to be replaced by a press of still greater capacity.

The four cylinder, six cylinder, eight cylinder and ten cylinder presses, which were until recently used in the great metropolitan newspapers of the country, are going out of date, and are no longer manufactured. The presses which are required by such papers as the New York Herald, New York Times and Chicago Times are the Bullock, the Walter and the Hoe web perfecting presses. The Bullock, on which the New York Herald, Chicago Times and Tribune and many other leading journals are printed, uses endless rolls of paper, and turns off 10,000 sheets, printed on both sides, per hour. The Walter press, which is in use in the offices of the New York Times and London Times, has a capacity of 27,000 complete sheets per hour. But the greatest of all now in use is Hoe's web perfecting, which prints on both sides, cuts, pastes and folds 30,000 sheets per hour. This press has recently been placed in the offices of the St. Louis Republican and Cincinnati Gazette.

Of course our double cylinder press would be ridiculously inadequate to the necessities of city journals having a circulation running into the tens of thousands, but there are no newspapers printed in this country in places of the size of Fort Wayne which require a press of its capacity. It is really a very fine piece of mechanism, as will be seen from the cut, and our readers are cordially invited to call at this office and witness its practical operation.

A Midnight Caller.
On last Saturday night as A. A. Purman was sitting in his library reading, at about half past 12, he heard footsteps on the roof of the veranda, which surrounds a part of his residence. He paid no particular attention thereto until he saw a man on the roof outside, through a window.

Mr. Purman arose and went to the window to throw it open when the party took one long step to the edge of the roof and jumped off a distance of about twelve feet and ran away. He was undoubtedly a burglar who had serious intentions upon Mr. Purman's residence. Mr. Purman states that he could easily have shot him, as his revolver was within reach when he first saw him, but he did not wish to do so. This is the third call of the kind he has had recently, and he says he is ready to give any future callers a warm reception.

The bad effects of imprudence in eating and drinking are speedily removed, and the depression following eating is quickly banished by the use of Dr. Bull's Baltimore Pills. Price 25 cents.

THE REFORMED CLOWN.

The Women of Monroeville Give Their Version of the Recent Rack at that Borough.

Monroeville, Sept. 8.—We, the undersigned Christian and temperance ladies and W. C. T. Union of this place, feeling desirous that you should know the true state of affairs connected with the meetings for the past week, held in the churches of this place, and conducted by the Rev. Jonathan Haskell, take this opportunity to inform you. On the evening of Thursday, September 4th, a notorious woman here, Lizzie Miller, who keeps a drinking and card playing saloon of the lowest character, where our boys and young men are learning to be drunkards and gamblers, and some of the fathers and husbands are being separated from their families, causing poverty, sorrow and death, rose in the midst of a crowded congregation and commenced a tirade of abuse, foul language and improper behavior. The congregation sang her fool ditty, knowing that she was the tool of bad men in our community, and that it was planned to thus break up the meeting.

At the conclusion of the singing, Bro. Haskell offered up a fervent prayer for her that God would lead her into a better business and convert her. During the entire prayer she kept on her foul, abusive language. Bro. Haskell said, "All who desire to hear the lady talk rise." Not one arose. Then he said: "Let all that desire the meeting to proceed rise." The entire congregation arose. The minister then spoke to her, as she was still talking bitterly: "You must stop or go out." She replied: "I'll talk as long as I please! I am as good as one of these sinners if I do sell rum, or you either, you old fraud!" Mr. Haskell went to her, put one arm around her waist and one arm under her limbs and gently lifted her up bodily and carried her to the officer, who just then appeared, who took her by her arms and ejected her from the church, when the services proceeded. A large number have signed the pledge. Crowded audiences are in attendance, and the best of order prevails. The meetings are still in progress, and our entire community, every decent man and woman in it, most emphatically and heartily endorse Bro. Haskell and his Christian wife, and consider that it was a God-send to Monroeville that they came to this place. They have been unanimously invited to remain another week. The Rev. Bro. Brown and the officers of all the churches most cordially sustain Bro. Haskell in his entire course here.

The woman named is a curse to our town, leading our boys and young men astray, gambles publicly with the drinking men that visit her den of shame, sells liquor to minors and on God's holy day, and we do pray the county commissioners to revoke her license at once.

(Signed) Hattie L. Lovelace, president W. C. T. U., Addie O. Wright, secy, Mrs. Rev. C. H. Brown, Ida A. Dewert, Mrs. H. L. Coverdale, Nannie Coverdale, Mrs. C. L. Lewis, Mrs. K. Conroy, Mrs. H. A. Anderson, Mrs. A. Delavan, Marion Coverdale, Nannie Coverdale, Hattie Coner, Mrs. H. M. Dunham, Mrs. M. J. Cassaday, Mrs. L. J. Crawford, Mrs. Scaw, Mrs. N. A. Shank, Harriet Barnhart, Clara A. Knouse, and all the Christian ladies and temperance mothers and daughters in Monroeville.

PHUN AT THE PHONE.
Warsaw and Fort Wayne Have Another Telephonic Tussle.

Warsaw and Fort Wayne were again telephonically connected yesterday, and the hearers at each end of the line were treated to a musical concert given by their neighbors.

Misses Laura and Elida Woodworth rendered several duets, as did Miss Katie Stemen and Miss Tarman. Then little Bennie Woodworth came to the front with "Little Buttercup," from Pinaflore, and with the admiral who "polished up the handle of the big front door," he brought down the house, so to speak.

But the principal attraction was the sour harrowing puns of Perry. Perry's puns, p. p., but for that the thing would have passed off pleasantly.

When Perry was heard to draw a big breath the phonics would insist that he stand firm under and hunt a safe shelter, because when one of those puns came skimming over the line, something was "sure" to break.

Tom Meegan was sent for and every time Perry would fix himself out to take a drink.

Quinn Hossler, at the other end, by previous arrangement, was cut out altogether.

Next Sunday an effort will be made to connect with Crestline or some other city.

THE RAILROADS.

The Jackson pay car will be here this week.
The Terre Haute Narrow Gauge Railroad Company will meet at Tip-ton to-morrow, to make arrangements for the purchase of a part of the right of way. Work is expected to begin next spring.

There will be a meeting of the committee appointed by the citizens, at the office of Frederick W. Hayden, at 7:30 o'clock sharp, on the matter of the Columbus and Northwestern Narrow Gauge Railroad. The committee consists of M. Cody, Jesse L. Williams, O. P. Morgan, Frederick W. Hayden and Geo. H. Wilson.

A west bound freight train on the Wabash road while crossing the trestle work over a creek about twenty miles east of St. Louis, at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, broke through, piling eight cars in the creek and wrecking several others. Particulars are very meagre, but John Cochran, engineer, and Charles McIntyre, brakeman, are reported killed, and James Fitzsimmons, fireman, leg broken and otherwise injured. The regular passenger train left for the east last night, but the passengers had to be transferred around the wreck.

Most of the churches were well filled yesterday.
The First Presbyterian Church reopened next Sunday.

Rev. Wharton conducted the ladies' temperance meeting at the court house yesterday afternoon.

Elder Mason preached at the Christian Church yesterday.

Rev. J. Seymour preached two able sermons at Plymouth Church yesterday.

The Churchman (Episcopal) of September, says: Nashville, Wis.—The Rev. Colin C. Tate has resigned the rectorship of Trinity Church, Fort Wayne, Ind., and has been appointed by the trustees of Nashville House to visit England and make an appeal for the endowment in this institution of a St. Augustine's professorship.

The Rev. Munford preached at Glenwood Chapel yesterday.

No services were held yesterday at the Second Presbyterian church.

There was a temperance meeting last night at the Third street M. E. Church.

The Rev. F. M. Gregg, of Iowa, preached at Trinity Church yesterday.

"FIRST AT THE GRAVE AND LAST AT THE CROSS."

A notice was read in Trinity Church yesterday, calling the faithful women together, who have done so much to build and beautify the most elegant church in the city, to meet at the vestry room on Thursday next, at 3 o'clock, to consult as to what work, if any, is best for them to do in the absence of a permanent rector to advance the interests of the church. This may stimulate the members of the vestry, who are supposed to be a little slow going, to bestir themselves in selecting a suitable pastor. But it is said the prospect looks a little gloomy since they have been advised that the man they are looking for has been in heaven many years.

It makes a person feel sad to hear a crying baby, suffering probably from some slight pain, which could be easily relieved by the use of Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup, which is for sale at all drug stores.
